

caillou

Book 2-5

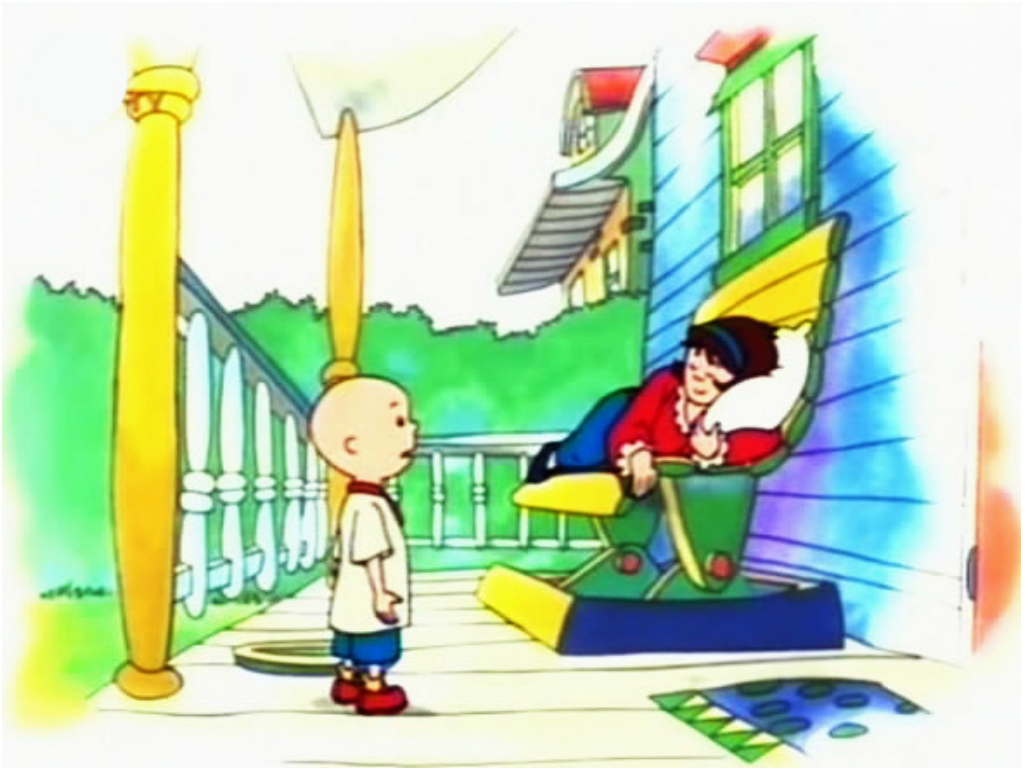

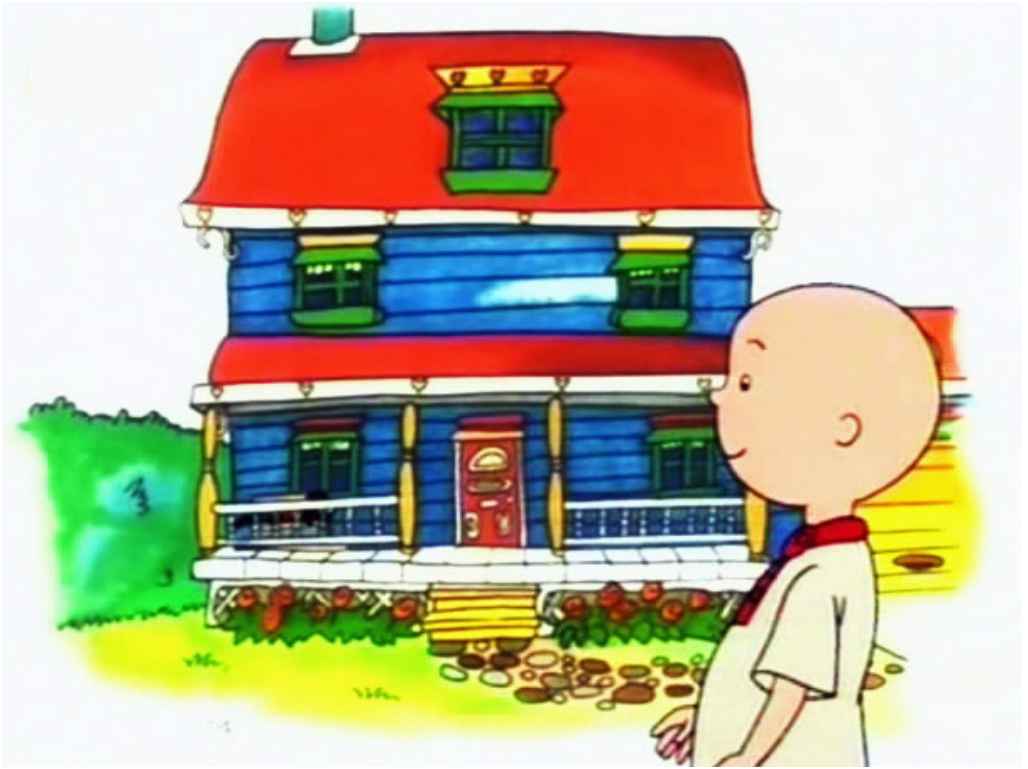

Storyteller: How about a story, kids? What's Caillou up to today? This sotry is called "Caillou Goes Round the Block". Caillou loved riding fast on his shiny new bicycle. And he loved his bicycle's horn.

Caillou: Hey, that's my cookie.

Caillou: Mommy, the squirrel ate my cookie. Mommy, are you asleep? It isn't bedtime yet!

Sarah: Hi, Caillou.

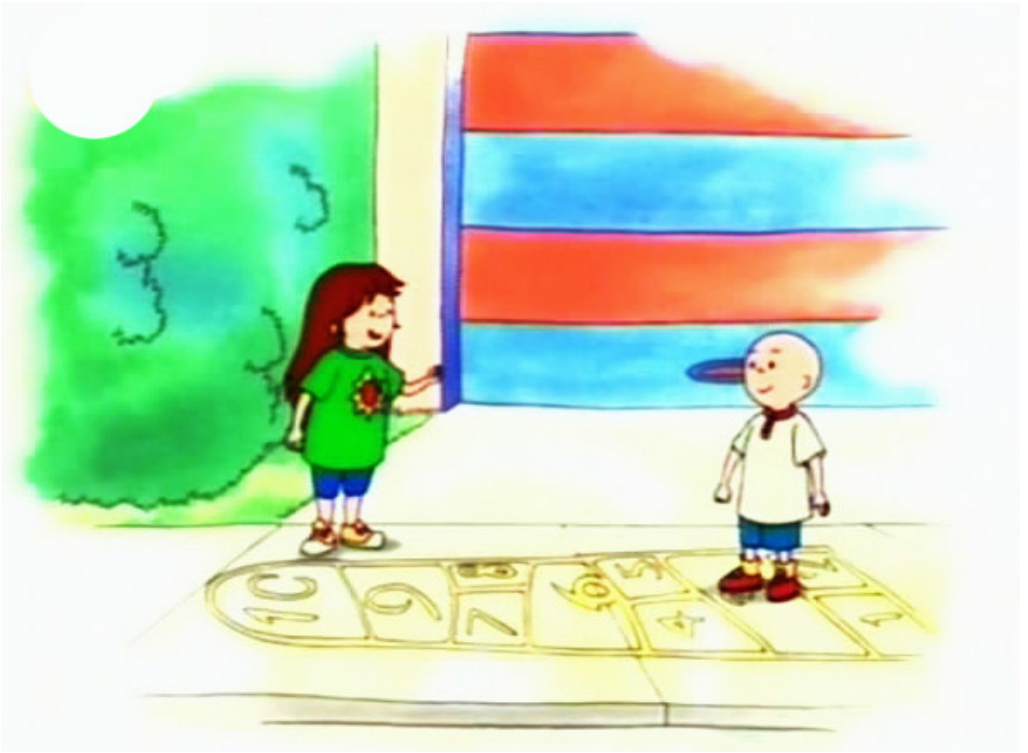

Caillou: Hi, Sarah.

Storyteller: Caillou had never gone around the corner all by himself. But he had always wanted to.

Caillou: Hey!

Storyteller: Caillou had never stood in a sprinkler with his clothes on before. It was fun being out with no one to tell him what to do.

Girl1: Hi, do you want to play hopscotch?
Throw your rock like this.

Storyteller: Caillou hopped like a bunny
all the way round another corner. Caillou decided that he could go all the way around the block all by himself.

Girl2: Don't worry. Bella is a nice dog.

Storyteller: Caillou was scared of the dog.

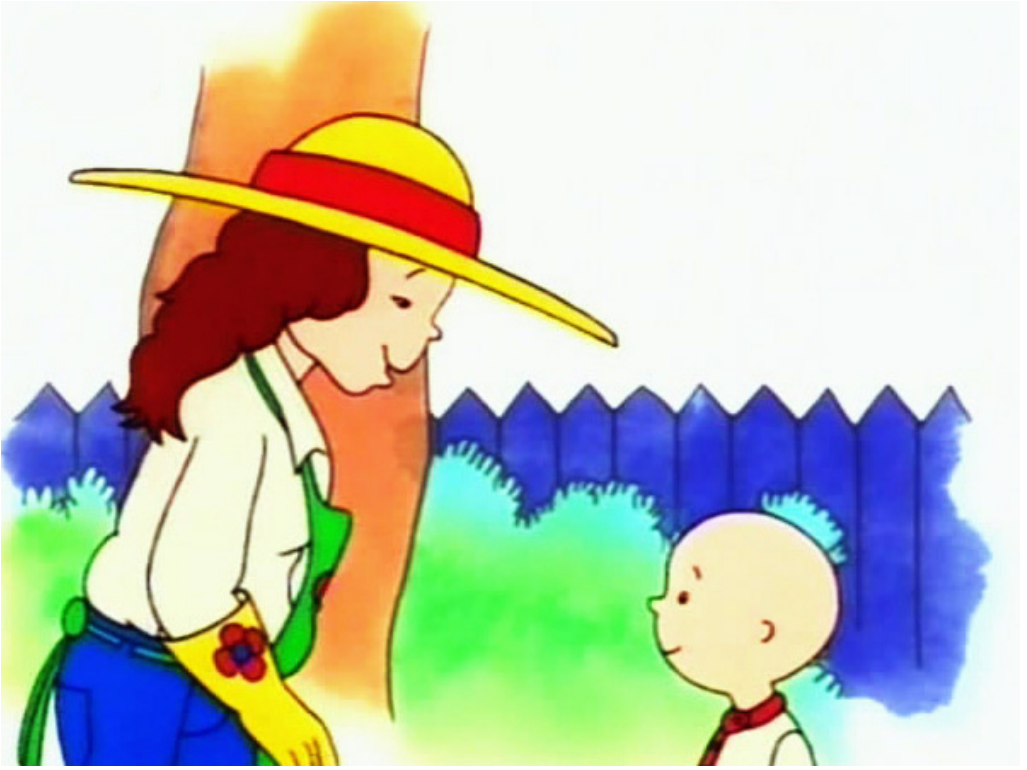

Girl2: Where are you going?

Caillou: I'm going around the block. I walked all by myself.

Girl2: You're very brave. Go that way, and you'll get back to your house.

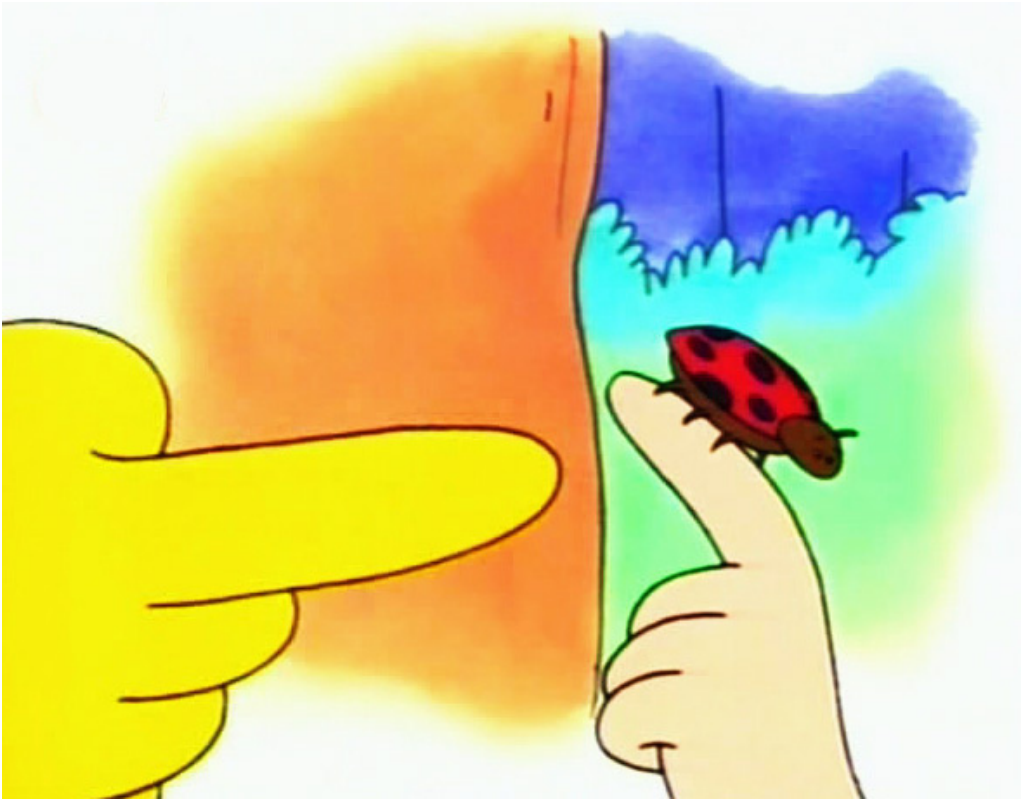

Storyteller: Caillou was starting feel nervous about being on his own. What if he got lost? What if he met another big dog? What if a big crow chased him?

Woman: Hello, there. I know you. You are Caillou. I've seen you with your Mommy and Daddy.

Storyteller: Caillou had seen this lady with his Mommy many times.

Woman: Are you well here all by yourself? Look what I have got here? Would you like to hold it?

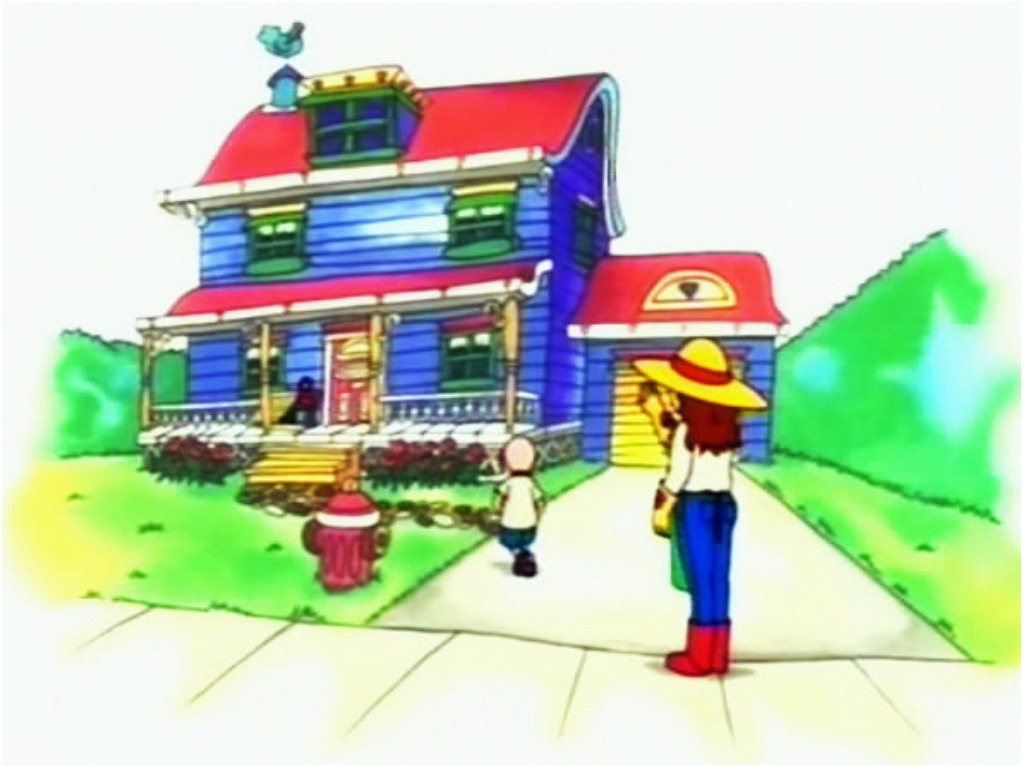

Caillou: It tickles.

Woman: Ladybug, ladybug, fly away home. I think it's time for you to fly away home too, Caillou. But first, let me get you something.

Caillou: Bye-bye, Ladybug.

Caillou: Thank you!

Storyteller: The lady was nice. Caillou was glad to be walking home holding her hand.

Caillou: Hi, Mommy! I'm home.

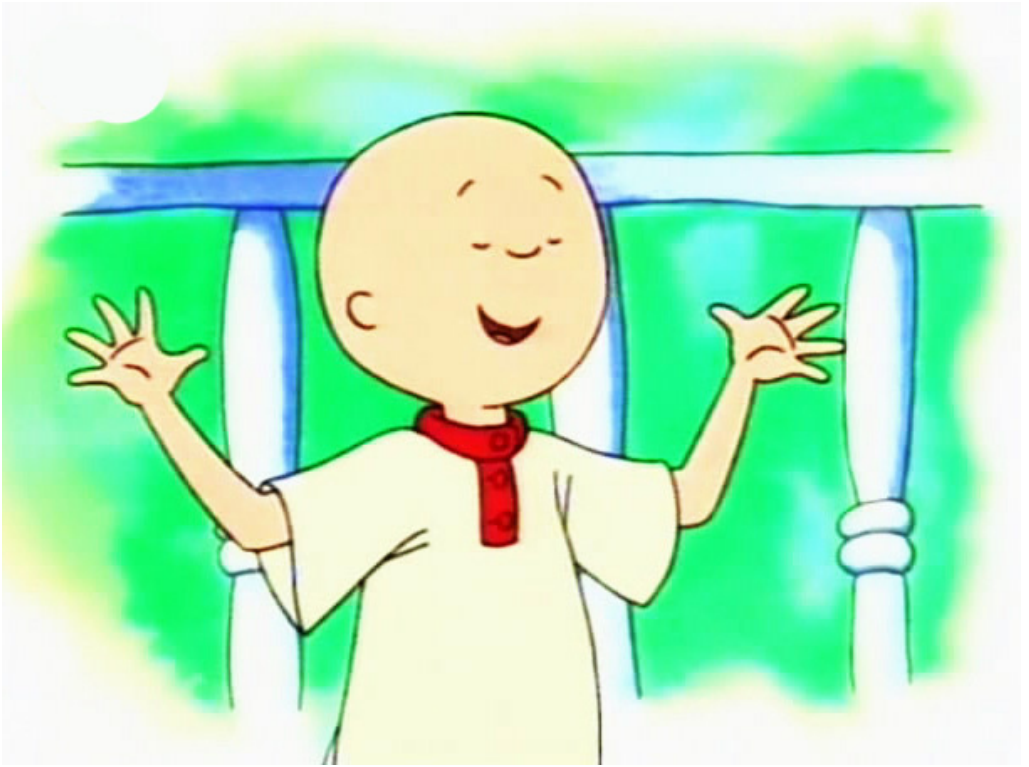

Mommy: Where did this come from?

Caillou: A lady gave it to me, over there!

Mommy: Uh! Yes, I know who you mean.
But what were you doing over there?

Caillou: While you were sleeping, I made all the way around the block.

Mommy: You did?

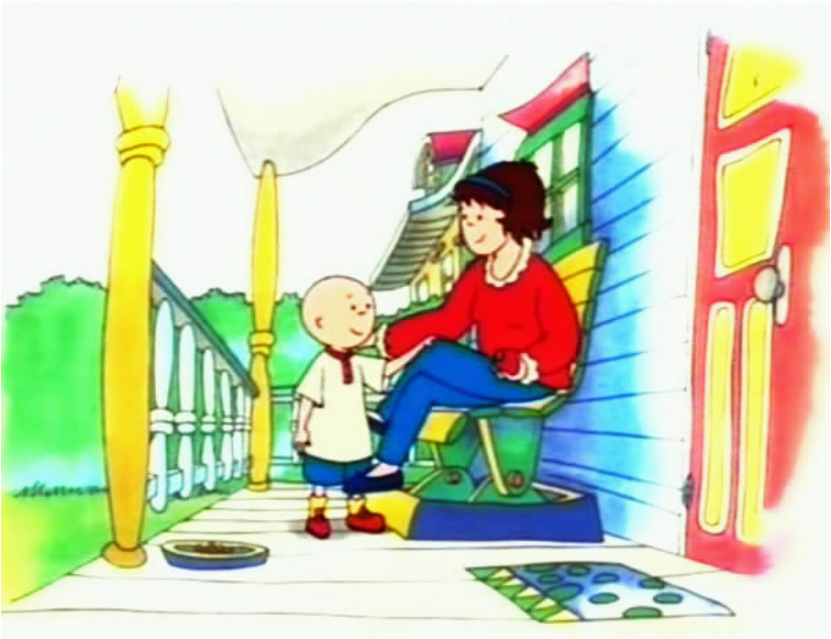

Caillou: And I saw a rainbow, and a hopscotch, and a big dog, and a very scary crow.

Mommy: Weren't you scared?

Caillou: A little bit!

Mommy: I think you'd better wait till you're a big boy before you go around the block again.
